

Brunello di Montalcino 2010

DEC

9

Tuscan Vines Passionately Pursuing Italian Wine & Food 94 points

2015

Brunello 2010: complete report

The 2010 Col d'Orcia Brunello is a fabulous wine. Building on the excellent efforts in 2008 and 2009, the 2010 is a medium ruby colored wine clear to the rim of the bowl. Fresh, vibrant and lively with loads of floral aromatics that seem to be becoming a hallmark for this producer. Crushed red fruits with lots of spice on both the nose and palate. Classically styled, the balance is wonderful and this displays a mouth watering mineral note of stones and fennel. It's amazing that so many styles of wine are present in this report - and from a single Sangiovese grape. I like this style a lot. 94 points. About $45.